

The 1919 test, from the derived field: spatial warping doubles the deflection — the factor the derivation forces

- no gravity (straight)
- - - time-warp only (Newton's value)
- derived metric: time + space warp (twice the bend)